“And that law of the land which is constitutional, supporting that principle of freedom in maintaining rights and privileges, belongs to all mankind...I, the Lord, justify you...in befriending that law” (D&C 98:5-10)

“Members of the Church are under special obligations to seek out and then uphold those leaders who are ‘wise,’ ‘good,’ and ‘honest’.” (see D&C 98:10) The First Presidency-January 15, 1998

The National Center for Constitutional Studies is encouraging individuals and families across the nation to take an active role in befriending the Constitution. As a reminder of this special obligation that you have, we are sending you this Constitution Pledge (see reverse side), signed by several general authorities.

We invite you to photocopy the reverse side of this page onto parchment paper and then put your signature next to the signatures of the prophet and the other church leaders. We would then encourage you to frame this parchment and hang it on your wall as a constant reminder of your pledge to read the Constitution and maintain and promote the standard of liberty set forth in that inspired document. Suggestion: Frame next to the proclamation on the family in recognition of God, Family and Country.

See enclosed sheet entitled “Our Constitutional Duty”.
